ENCHANTED LOVE STORY

It was the stuff fairy tales are made of, as friends and families came together to celebrate the engagement of Joseph Ong and Jolene Chong at Hotel Re!

A prince and princess for the day, Joseph Ong and Jolene Chong threw a lavish $30,000 engagement party last July at the Re!joice ballroom of Hotel Re! at Pearl's Hill.

Walking into the venue, guests were captivated by the décor, which transformed the ballroom into a castle with a blue and white medieval backdrop and a cherub fountain. There was even a "town square" featuring a caricaturist, magician and fire-eaters.

The pair made their grand entrance on a white horse, which was rented from the Singapore Polo Club. Inspired by Cinderella, self-confessed Disney-princess fan Chong (who is the hotel's deputy general manager) was a vision in a blue bustier ballgown and tiara. Her prince — incidentally, the hotel's general manager — gallantly led her into the ballroom.

The dress code was "fairytales-themed", and guests dined in romantic candlelight and were serenaded by a harpist playing Disney songs.

To the delight of their friends and families, the couple re-enacted a classic Cinderella scene, with Ong helping Chong slip on her heels before beginning their dance routine.
